

Nucleus Marketing Services

At Nucleus Marketing Services, we take the stress out of online selling with pay-as-you-go e-commerce fulfilment service for B2C and B2B, for businesses in the Bury area.

This service is ideal for those who have just started trading, plus companies that are already established, as you can house all of your stock within our warehouse until we are ready to deliver it for you, allowing you to meet all your postal deadlines.

We will pick and pack from your stock and deliver. We can even help out ease the stress in making up your orders. We can also make up and pack marketing materials for shows and exhibitions.

With no sign-up fees or minimum quantities, we can make savings on your postage costs across every kind of industry, from toothpaste to soft toys to cement buckets.

Be assured your parcel will arrive in time, as we offer full tracking from when we receive your goods to when they are delivered to the customer's door. The service has no hidden costs – each order will receive a personalised quote, which is the rate you'll pay. This includes as many reports on demand with no extra charges.
