Gerry McLoughlin Photography

Hi, I am Gerry McLoughlin, a commercial photographer based in north Manchester.

Over the years I have had the pleasure of shooting product and portraiture for some of the UK's best known brands, and also supporting a great many local companies. I work very hard to ensure that I am great to work with and that I always deliver exciting, creative results that fully fit the brief.

PRODUCT PHOTOGRAPHY • FOOD PHOTOGRAPHY • PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPHY ARCHITECTURAL PHOTOGRAPHY • VIDEO AND 360 DEGREE PHOTOGRAPHY

If you need fantastic product photography, page turning PR photography or great people shots to really get your business noticed, then I can help. I take a pride in always working hard to exceed client expectations, deliver fantastic value for money and build lasting business relationships.

Product photography from as little as £8.00 per product, shot on 100% pure white and supplied fully edited and ready to use in web and print formats. Fast turnaround, collection and drop off service, plus location studio offered.

Always willing to offer a free quote or advice on any commercial photography project, I would be delighted to hear from you.
