

The Red Hall Hotel is ideally located on the Northern outskirts of Manchester with the City Centre easily reachable. In fact, the hotel's excellent motorway links have made it one of the most popular Manchester hotels around.

The hotel has 37 tastefully designed bedrooms, all with en-suite facilities and for that special occasion or business meeting, we offer a choice of three function suites.

Whether it be for a relaxing weekend retreat or a base for your business visit our rooms offer something different, something distinctive. A home away from home.

Oscars

Transformed into a stylish and comfortable place to dine, with stunning views over the surrounding countryside, Oscar's offers a fantastic menu using only the finest ingredients, sourced locally where possible. We take this picturesque setting and add warm, friendly service with mouth-watering dishes, from the finest ingredients and a dazzling array of hand picked wines. Open daily for lunch and dinner.
