

Carmelo's is a highly acclaimed family restaurant located in the village of Tottington, just outside Bury. Offering traditional Italian cuisine, with a strong Southern Italian influence, it is a firm favourite with locals and food connoisseurs alike.

Carmelo and his brother Nicola came to England in the 1970's and followed their dream of owning and running their own restaurant. It was hard work, but now more than 20 years later, the restaurant is thriving.

The varied menu brings out the very best of Italian food with the use of simple, fresh, ingredients and the brothers take great pride in the presentation of their dishes and the quality of ingredients.
